The 2010 European Distributor Meeting

Business partners from 18 different companies and 17 different countries from all over Europe came together in bustling Hamburg, Germany for the annual Compumedics European Distributor Meeting to learn all about the latest developments at Compumedics.

Over 30 attendees met with key Compumedics personnel including - Warwick Freeman (Chief Technology Officer), Curtis Ponton (VP Neuroscan), Ken Whitton (Clinical and Application Specialist) and David Vermeiren (European Sales Director).

The event was memorable and the contribution of all in attendance made it a resounding success.
