FY17 Update

Core business

Tracking to guidance – Grael platform shipping, new sales staff in the US employed, new sales person in Germany employed.

MEG

Sales pipeline continues to grow – 30 opportunities identified, 3 to 4 opportunities advanced with one expected to be an “intention to buy” by late calendar 2016, early calendar 2017.

eHealth

Nexus 360 (professional) – initial sites in the US signed and being implemented, China sites continue initial beta activities

Somfit (consumer) – software platform working, hardware proto in advanced stages of completion, strategic discussions continue

Step out 1 - Brain Imaging: A$9m sales in FY17

Opportunity

CMP's CURRY brain analysis software is already the gold standard for the MEG* market

MRI is too slow to capture dynamic brain activity needed for alzheimer's et al
CMP's agreement with KRISS provides access to a new and superior hardware platform

Compumedics can access a complete MEG sale (circa USD5m each) as opposed to the USD30k software sale

Market & Competition

The MEG market is currently estimated at about 35 systems a year at an average selling price of USD5.5m each = US$200m/annum

This is expected to grow about 10% a year, excluding China

It is estimated that China could double the existing market size to about 70 units a year

The dominant existing player is Elekta, based out of Sweden, followed by Yokogawa (Japanese market) and CTF MEG (a much smaller player)

Plan

H2 FY16 – sign LOI with KRISS for license access to MEG hardware platform

H1 FY17 – sign LOI with at least first two customers to acquire CMP's MEG device

H1 FY17 – Finalise specifications and manufacture with KRISS

H2 FY17 – install first CMP MEG system

Outcome

CMP plans to sell and install 2 MEG systems in FY17 @ USD3.5m ea

CMP expects to sell at least 5 MEG systems in FY18

CMP expects to double sales in FY19 to 10 MEG systems for about USD40m

*MEG = Magnetoencephalography

MRI = Magnetic resonance imaging

Step out 2 – eHealth/cloud: A$4m/a sales already eHealthMedics has already locked in excess of $10m of forward orders over the next three years (primarily in China) for its professional services platform. Initial pilot sites commence in May and June this year.

Operational systems have been developed for the cloud based capture, transfer and translation of medical grade sleep parameters from any web-enabled device. The system can then store, analyse and interpret that data in a simple and actionable manner, reducing the need for on-site professionals.

Compumedics are now approaching a select group of strategic partners/investors to expedite the process and rapidly deploy the platform to market.

Key partners being pursued include web, telco, eHealth, consumer health/ electronics providers and device manufacturers.
